A Selected Bibliography

U.S. Army War College Library

August 1998

The nature of modern warfare demands that we fight as a joint team. This was important yesterday, it is essential today, and it will be even more imperative tomorrow.

Former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff John M. Shalikashvili
Joint Vision 2010

Separate ground, sea and air warfare is gone forever. If ever again we should be involved in war, we will fight it in all elements, with all services, as one single concentrated effort.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower
Special Message to Congress, April 3, 1958

Joint Pub 1

purple-suiter-An officer assigned to duty on a staff where no particular service predominates. This may be a joint staff, where all services cooperate, or a combined staff, where two or more allied nations participate. He is called purple because he loses the identity (and color) of his particular service, and the color purple is not used by any of the services. The official colors are green for Army, blue for Air Force, and white for Navy.

A Dictionary of Soldier Talk, p. 245.

joint-Connotes activities, operations, organizations, etc., in which elements of more than one Service of the same nation participate.

Department of Defense Dictionary of Military and Associated Terms, p. 196.

Preface

To assist researchers in a better understanding of how the United States armed services work together, the U.S. Army War College Library presents Jointness: A Selected Bibliography.

A revised and updated version of our earlier bibliographies on jointness, this listing generally includes materials published since 1993. It focuses on various aspects of jointness such as joint operations, joint logistics, interservice cooperation, interservice rivalry, joint communications, and the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

All the items included in this bibliography are readily available in the U.S. Army War College Library. For your convenience, we have added our call numbers at the end of each entry. Please keep in mind that call numbers may vary from library to library.

This bibliography is also available on the Internet through our Library's home page (<http://carlisle-www.army.mil/library/>).
